*K of C Ravioli Sale – Watch the bulletin for the order blank during the month of October. The Knights will once again make their delicious meat and cheese ravioli and homemade sauce. Get your orders in early.

Food Pantry – As the weather begins to make a change toward cooler temperatures, heating demands become greater and budgets get tighter. The needs of our local food pantry become greater during the fall and winter months. Please consider bringing at least one non-perishable item with you when you come to Mass and place it in the collection container in the vestibule. Since October is Respect Life Month it would be a wonderful gesture to take care of others who need our help. All donations are greatly appreciated. Please remember that items cannot be stale-dated, must be in their original packaging not separated, must be non-perishable. Make a difference during Respect Life Month!

Guess What? We won a Blue Ribbon at the Bloomsburg Fair! The beautiful coleus plant that was growing in the pot in front of the parish office became quite the giant plant and we decided to enter the fair. Special thanks to Pearl Swank!

Don't forget to use your Boyer's key tag when shopping. Our parish benefits greatly from your weekly shopping and quick trips to the grocery store. Boyer's has been very gracious to give us the opportunity to participate in this program and the quarterly benefits are generous!

Beef n' Brew – Hosted by our Knights of Columbus will be held in the parish social hall on Saturday, October 14, 6:00 to 10:30 p.m. $25 per person includes bottomless glass, craft beers, great food, music by Deuce. Benefits veterans and community programs. You must be 21 to enter the event. Tickets available at the parish office, Vic's Transmissions, Vought's, and K of C members.
